YACHT RACE IS POSTPONED A DAY BY FOG

Start Impossible To-day in the Thick Blanket of Mist at Sandy Hook.

By Barton W. Currie.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RIGHLANDS, N. J., May 16.—The racing committee has called off the start in the ocean contest for the Kaiaccount of the heavy fog.

When the decision was reached all pleven yachts were anchored in Sandy Hook, Bay. The wind was blowing from the northeast fifteen miles an hour, but the mist was so thick that of her rail was torn away. This necessitated the return of the boat to the Eric Basin, where repairs were made. Dr. Stimson, her owner, said the accident would not prevent his yacht from participating in the race.

dent would not prevent his yacht from participating in the race.

The Glowcester men on Lewis A. Stimson's dinky little Fieur de Lys, as they busiled about the dainty crart, were even a hardler-looking lot than the picked English crews of Lord Brassey's Sunbeam or the Earl of Crawford's Valhalla, That they and their iorefathers had brayed the deadlies:

So Lawyer Swackhamor opened for the defense of George H. Wood, accused of the murder of Grocer George Williams, of Watchung, during a lonely sleigh ride on Feb. 2, this afternoon. Then counsel told of many strange acts and delusions of Wood, some long before the time of the murder, but none stranger than those of the week which the prisoner affirms is an absolute blank to him.

HELD BY LITTLE BLACK MAN.

In these a "little black man," apparently a very genius of evil, a man named "Mac" and one Henry Wolf figure. All these, the lawyer declared, are "entirely mythical and existed only as the vagaries of a macman's mind." On Jan. 30 Wood believes he met "Mac" and "Wolf," the latter an old annoyer. They asked him to go to Scarsdale promising to get for him a loan of $1,000. At a lonely junction they had beer and "the little black man" came ir. Then the others left and the "little black man" took Wood in charge. They went to Scarsdale and "Mac's father" told "the little black

STAR CHICAGO BALL PLAYERS

(Special to The Evening World.)
POLO GROUNDS, NE WYORK, May 16.-Johnny McGraw's champion Giants and Selee's hard-working ball-tossers from Chicago clashed again this after noon for the third game of the series

First Inning. Lilliputian Casey opened the game by cracking a grounder to Gilbert, who by cracking a grounder to Gilbert, who lost no time in disposing of him at first. Schulte also banged out a grass cutter to the infield, which Dahlen and McGann took care of. Maloney was the third victim on his slow one, which Gilbert shot to McGann in time for an out. out. NO RUNS.

Donlin wasked. Browne drove a low line fly straight into Tinker's hands. McGann banged a grass cutter to Tinker, who put him out at first, Donlin reaching second on the out. Bresnahan got in a safe one to the initel, advancing Donlin to third. Roger stole second unmolested. Mences falled to land off Rudebek's third curve and the Glants took' the field. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Barry stammed out a long fly and Mortes was under the ball when it came down. Slagle drove a fast one along the ground to Devlin, who retired him by a few inches. Tinker waited for four wide ones. Hoffman put the side into the field by raising a fly which Browne smothered. NO RUNS.

Dahlen was an easy out on his clow grounder to Rudabek, who tossed the ball to Barry. Devlin would not swing at high enes, and consequently was allowed a pass to first. Gilbert sent a low line fly to Schulte. Ames sent a fly on a line into Barry's maulers. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Kling swung viciously at three of Ames's swift drops and went to the bench. Rudabek pasted a bounder to McGann, who beat the big twirler in the run to the bag. Casey raised one which was easy meat for Mertes. No RUNS.

Lonlin reached first on his safe hit, the ball taking a bad bound from Barry. Browne made a pretty sacrifice, Barry touching him out on the line. McGann received an irishout in the back and jogged to first. Both runners moved up, a base on Breenshan's sacrifice, Rudabek shooting the ball to Barry. Mertes was deadheaded to first by Rudabek, filling the bags. Debten also drew a free pass, forcing in Donlin. Deviin then swatted the ball to right for a base, scoring McGann and Mertes and promoting habien to third. Deviin stole recond. Gibert fouled out to Kling. THREE RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Schulte went to first after Ames had toned in four wide ones. Maloney hit a fast bounder to Gibberi, who touched out Schulte on his way to second and by a quick throw to MoGann doubled up Maloney. Barry was a victim on strikes. NO RUNS.

Ames gave an exhibition of chub rivinging. Doulin bounded one to Horrman and perished at first. Hoffman and Gurre took care of Browne's jumper and the inning came to an end. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Sixth Inning. Rudabek made three healthy swings at Ames's deceptive drops. Casey filed out to Mertes. Schulte was retired on his grass cutter by Dahlen and McGann. NO RUNS.
Gilbert lifted a high foul fly and Casey grabbed it. Ames was out on strikes. Donlin was retired by Barry unassisted. NO RUNS.
